Membership in the state professional organization requires an application form, a brief letter of intent, three references, and evidence of the following credentials based on the FAC By laws to be considered by the FAC membership committee.

Membership on the Council is open to anyone who adheres to the Code of Conduct of the Register of Professional Archaeologists (RPA) and who meets the qualifications listed below under subsections 1(a) or 1(b) of the FAC By laws_ Articles:

1(a) holds a master's degree or higher in Anthropology, Archaeology, History, or other closely related discipline, with an emphasis in archaeology, and who can document one of the following:

- 1) 12 weeks of supervised field training, at least half of which is excavation , or*
- 2) 12 weeks of supervised practical training in a specialized sub-field as zooarchaeology, archaeobotany, or museum studies affiliated with archaeological or anthropological collections.*

1(b) is professionally employed as an archaeologist and can document one of the following :

- 1) a minimum of 1 year of field experience, including 24 weeks of field work under the supervision of a professional archaeologist, at least half of which is excavation, and including at least 20 weeks of field work in a supervisory capacity , or*
- 2) a minimum of one year of practical experience in a specialized sub-field such as zooarchaeology, archaeobotany, or museum studies affiliated with archaeological or anthropological collections including 24 weeks under the supervision of a professional archaeologist or related professional (e.g., museum curator), and including at least 20 weeks in a supervisory capacity within the field.*

Please read the above criteria carefully and include appropriate information (e.g., listing of field experience, degrees, names of three references) in your packet. Your vita alone may not cover important dates to show the necessary experience, so please be explicit. Please note: If all requested criteria are not provided your application will be returned. Thank you.

The FAC membership committee will review your application packet and inform you of their decision or ask for additional information if needed to approve your membership request.
